

Date: Friday 20th May 2016

Venue: George Pickering Centre, John Radcliffe Hospital, Oxford

9:55 Welcome

Digital Pathology

10:00-10:30 Digital Pathology, including an update on the Digital Autopsy

Professor Ian Roberts

10:30-11:00 Digital Pathology and Image Analysis – where we are and the future

Professor Jens Rittscher

11:00-11:15 Refreshments

Molecular Pathology

11:15-11:45 The 100K genome project: transforming cancer diagnosis and treatment through genomic precision

Dr Shirley Henderson

11:45-12:15 The 100K genome project: Oxford as a Genomics Medicine Centre – what does this mean?

Dr Clare Verrill

12:15-12:45 Academic Cancer Pathology – the oncologist’s perspective

Dr Sarah Blagden

12:45-13:00 Molecular Pathology Training for Histopathology Trainees - update

Dr Lisa Browning

13:00-14:00 Lunch

Histopathology Specialty Trainee Presentations

Chair Dr Lisa Browning

14:00 Dr Richard Colling Molecular Testing in Colorectal Cancer

14:15 Dr Philip Macklin The Effect of Hypoxia on the Anti-Tumour Immune response

14:30 Dr Kezia Gaitskell Risk Factors for Ovarian Cancer by Histological Type in the Million Women Study

14:45-15:15 Refreshments

15:15 Dr Joanne Cunningham Case Presentation - ‘A Rare Occurrence’

15:30 Mr Khyber Maarij Case Presentation – ‘A testicular tumour with a rare form of metastatic disease’

15:45 Dr Kanchan Palial Audit – ‘Diagnostic Error Rates in Cellular Pathology at RBH’

16:00 Review of the day and meeting close